The North Park Historical Society is an educational non-profit corporation with 501(c)(3) tax exempt status. Your fully tax-deductible membership supports historical walking tours, research, community outreach, printing of our award-winning books by Donald Covington (North Park: A San Diego Urban Village 1896-1946, and Burlingame: The Tract of Character), and other projects to preserve North Park's cultural and architectural history. We welcome you to come to our meetings on the third Thursday of each month.
